

REMEMBER:

PART OF SPEECH= noun, verb, pronoun, adverb, adjective, preposition
 CASE=Nominative, genitive, dative, accusative, ablative, vocative NUMBER = singular, plural
 DEGREE=positive, comparative, superlative USE=subject, predicate nominative, possession, indirect object, reference, object of special verbs, dative with special adjective direct object, object of preposition, subjective infinitive, complementary infinitive, imperative, noun of direct address

I. Translate the following sentences and answer the following grammar questions:

1. "Domine!" servus inquit, "difficile est nobis procedere, quod hī Britannī viam complent."

Domine: case _____ number _____ use _____ nobis: case _____ number _____ use _____ procedere: part of speech _____ use _____

2. Salvius iratissimus eī dixit...

eī: part of speech _____ case _____ number _____ use _____

3. Ego quam celerrimē ire volo quod rex nōs expectat.

celerrimē: part of speech _____ degree _____

ire: part of speech _____ use _____ nōs: part of speech _____ number _____ case _____ use _____

4. Salvius, quī nunc erat iratior quam antea, eum vituperat.

iratior: part of speech _____ case _____ degree _____

eum: part of speech _____ number _____ case _____ use _____

5. Varica ā domino perterritus erat.

domino: part of speech _____ number _____ case _____ use _____

6. Demovēte hoc plaustrum!

Demovete: part of speech _____ use _____

7. "Britannī sunt molestissimī," inquit Salvius.

molestissimī: part of speech _____ number _____ case _____ degree _____

II. Adjectives are the same number, _____, and _____ as the nouns they describe.

III. Memorize the forms of the relative pronouns (qui, quae, quod). See your grammar notebook!

OVER →

15.4 Procession to King Cogidubnus' Palace

Re-read lines 1–7 of “ad aulam” in your Unit 2 textbook, Stage 15, pp. 46–47, and then follow the instructions below.

- 1 Match the object(s) in each box with the name of the person(s) who carried it or them in the procession. Write the letter of the appropriate person(s) in the blank under each object.

A praecursōrēs

C servus

B ancilla

D aliae ancillae

- 2 How many people were there in the procession? Circle the correct answer below.

1–10 11–20 over 20

- 3 How many animals were there in the procession? Circle the correct answer below.

2 3 10

- 4 Circle the correct Latin words and make a Latin sentence which means the same as the English.

The ten forerunners who were going in front held sticks.

quīnque praecursor quī in primā parte ibant virgās tenēbant.
decem praecursōrēs quem in mediā parte ibat virgam tenēbat.

READ ABOUT COGIDUBNUS, KING OF THE REGNENSES, IN YOUR TEXTBOOK,

PAGES 56 – 58 (Also see the reading you have already received on this client king)

N.B.

